

T ABLE OF CONTENTS

4 Message from Brady Mikusko
5 Introduction to the Workbook
7 Understanding Mediation
7 What Is Mediation
10 Mediation Compared to Other Divorce Options
12 Six Critical Components for Successful Mediation
13 Getting Ready for Mediation
13 Know How the Law Affects Your Situation
16 Mediation Means Collaborative Problem Solving
16 Who's Best to "Drive the Car"?
18 Three Powerful Ideas
18 For every action, there is a reaction
19 We each think differently
20 Proving who is right and wrong will not be useful
21 Keys to Success in Mediation
22 Listen for information
23 Identify all the concerns
26 Attack the problem, not the person
28 Clarify wants and needs
33 Create intention
38 Create ideas and options
41 A Divorce Vow
44 Going Through Mediation
44 Ways to Support Yourself
46 The Flow of Mediation
	49 Important Do's & Don'ts
	49 Negotiation strategies
	50 How to communicate: I-statements v. You-statements
	51 How to raise difficult issues
	52 How to Work with Your Attorney
	55 Alternatives to Mediation
	56 Appendix: Additional Reading
	57 How to Choose a Divorce Attorney
	59 Outside Experts You May Need
	60 The Role of the Mediator
	61 Reflections on Divorce
	65 Time & the Decision to Divorce
	67 Appendix: Useful Checklists and Forms
	68 Separation Checklist
	69 Parenting Checklist
	70 A Discussion of Parenting Time Schedules
	72 Blank Month to Create Schedules
	73 A Discussion of Budgets & Divorce
	74 Monthly Budget of Expenses
	78 Financial Information and Income Statement
	84 Financial Checklist
	85 Child Support Checklist
	87 Spousal Support Checklist
	89 Appendix: Resources (a limited list)